St. Johns, Thursday, Oct. 8.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Reverend Mr. Milner is in Utah. We understand that Henry Huning, is in Prescott.

St. Johns is short on dogs—but very long on cats.

R. L. Renfro, of Springerville, came to town yesterday.

Ike Clanton came in from Springerville on Sunday last.

Frank Hubbell has been appointed Under Sheriff of Apache county.

The full proceedings of the Board of Supervisors will appear next week.

One prisoner in the county jail awaiting the session of the District Court.

W. W. Wall, our efficient mail contractor, is stopping at the Salt Lakes.

Charles Hubbell has returned to his old stamping ground—Fort Defiance.

Mr. A. Pourade left town the first of the week to look after his stock ranch.

E. C. Bunch, our Probate Judge, arrived from Springerville the first of the week.

Several train loads of grain passed through town this week, bound for Fort Apache.

Nathan Barth came in from Albuquerque on Monday morning—been doing the fair.

The miners and cattlemen in Sierra county, New Mexico, offer a reward of $50 a piece for Indian scalps.

Mr. Jake English will leave for Mexico the latter part of this week, as will also Mr. Geo. H. Miller.

Hon. R. L. Long, Superintendent of Public Instruction, is in Tombstone looking after the schools in that section.

R. C. Kinder and J. Q. Adamson, two of the largest sheep raisers in Apache county, were in town the first of the week.

Sheriff Hubbell and his deputy, Chas., returned to St. Johns on Tuesday, having conducted Baca and Moreno safely to Yuma prison.

Harry Silver has returned from Springerville, and can now be found behind the counter at the mercantile establishment of Nathan Barth.

A vacancy is said to exist at the Navajo Indian Agency in this county. An army of applicants are on deck for the position of Agent.

County Treasurer, Dionicio Baca, is in attendance at the regular quarterly session of the Board of Supervisors of Apache county.

The roof on the Mormon tithing office was shingled this week. Some Mormon carpenters working out their tithing dues, undoubtedly.

Ernest Tee, Esq., of Springerville, Supervisor of Apache county, is in attendance at the session of the Board. Mr. Tee is one of its most punctual members.

The quick delivery system went into operation in Santa Fe, the only town entitled to it in New Mexico, on the first instant; of course the "ancient" must chuckle a little chuck.

The Board of Supervisors of Apache county is in session this week at St. Johns. Present Supervisors Ernest Tee and W. B. Leonard; absent, Henry Huning. Mr. Tee was made President pro tem., and the affairs of the county are being attended to.

On Friday last at Springerville. Jos. McCulloch, son of Mrs. McCulloch of that town, fell from his horse and fractured his skull. His condition is critical.

Also at Springerville on the same day Mr. James Cooper had his arm so badly broken by a threshing machine, that amputation was necessary. Dr. Blake, of St. Johns, and Dr. Sherman, of Springerville, performed the operation.

What is up now? It is said that the United States Government has shipped 600 cartridge boxes, 500 waist belts, and 10,000 rounds of ammunition to Holbrook, and the same to Tucson, to use in case of emergency. What case?

George A. McCarter, editor and proprietor of the Yuma Republican, expects to visit St. Johns sometime during the present month. Mr. McCarter is building a fine residence at Yuma, preparatory to the arrival of his family from Kansas.

Mr. W. W. Wall, United States mail contractor, has been laying up at his Salt Lake's station for the past week, taking rest and nursing himself. Exposure and incessant labor for the past two months, brought on inflammation of the eyes, which caused him distressing pain. We are glad to hear of his improvement during his retirement.

The last Orion Era complains that the Territorial Fair Association did not treat it courteously, having failed to send usual complimentary tickets, etc. The fault was occasioned by an oversight on the part of the Secretary, and no offence was intended by the association.—Albuquerque Journal.

Don't fret, Mr. Secretary. No one to growl in Apache county.

Postmaster Stover has received from the department a supply of the immediate delivery stamps. They are of the denomination of ten cents, and by affixing one to a letter, in addition to the regular postage, it will insure immediate delivery upon its arrival at the place of destination, provided, that post office is an immediate delivery office, a list of which can be seen posted in the St. Johns post office.

Mr. Max Salzman, of Springerville, was made supremely happy; in fact, it is reported in St. Johns, that his state is ecstatic, for unto him a child is born, to him a son is given. Well, it is the first, and nobody blames Max if he does, for the next ten days, drop on sugar two cents a pound and sell twenty yards of calico for a dollar. We rejoice to make the usual happy announcement that mother and child are doing well.

Mr. Edward T. Frederick, whose reputation as a mixist, stands without a rival in the south and southwest, has taken charge of the St. Johns Billiard Parlor, and will at once proceed to put it in the best possible and most attractive condition. New cloths will be placed upon the billiard tables, and grand chandeliers will take the place of the present faulty illuminators.

Elder Milner of the Orion Era, published at St. Johns, Arizona, was a caller on the Journal yesterday. Mr. Milner is a zealous Mormon and has hopeful views of the future of this sect. He left on the midnight train for Salt Lake.—Albuquerque Journal.

No, he ain't a zealous Mormon. He is his own organ, and sometimes he plays one tune and sometimes another. Just wait till he compares "notes" and "harmonies" with Bishop Sharp. Zealous Mormon, indeed! You git out.

We congratulate the good people of Albuquerque on the great success of their Fair. Every one that we have seen, who visited the Exhibition, speak in glowing terms of it and its promoters. Our exchanges, as far as received, highly compliment the energy, the tact, talent and perseverance, and rejoice at the grand results attained by a most deserving people. We must explain to friends in Albuquerque that serious illness of a beloved sister prevented our attendance.

Apache County Ahead

The Albuquerque Evening Democrat of the 2d inst., says: "The second man to enter the contest was Dick Greer, of Apache county, Arizona, who made quick work of his broncho, capturing and tying it in a style which not only made him the winner of the $40 purse, but made him the popular favorite. It only required 12½ minutes for Dick to catch, tie, saddle and mount his broncho, and the way he sat it demonstrated that a bucking broncho has no terror for a genuine wild cow-boy." There is some style about that, Dick! All New Mexico and half of Texas, beside a host from Arizona and you, as you deserved to, got away with the baggage. 'Rah, Dick, that's glory enough for Apache county and you as its representative.

The Postmaster General thought he was wiser than Congress and refused to use the appropriations to pay steamships for carrying the mails. As one of the results New Zealand and New South Wales, which have received their mails by an American line of ships from San Francisco, have just concluded a contract with an English line of steamships for $150,000 per year. This will turn a large trade into British channels, and is only a beginning of the short-sighted and narrow-between-the-eyes policy.—Albuquerque Journal.

This is the same "smart Aleck" in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet that is piling up a reputation of niggardly meanness for the administration. Eight thousand people, or thereabouts, were dependent upon the Navajo and Springerville mail, for communication with the outside world, six times a week. This, in the opinion of Mr. Vilas, was too rich for the average Arizonian's blood, and with one fell stroke of his official Bowie-knife he destroys our hope of keeping up with national affairs—and our consequent cursing destroys our hopes of Heaven.
